

Organic Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, August 2019

The Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville is accepting applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position in organic chemistry. Applications in all areas of organic chemistry are encouraged, including theoretical or computational organic. Successful candidates will be expected to establish a nationally recognized research program, teach organic chemistry effectively at the graduate and undergraduate levels, and provide service to the students, department, and campus community.

Minimum Qualifications: A Ph.D. or equivalent in chemistry or a related field earned by August 2019, and relevant postdoctoral experience.

For More Information and to Apply

For complete consideration, please submit a cover letter, curriculum vita, statement of proposed research (six page limit), and teaching philosophy statement (three page limit) to <http://jobs.uark.edu/postings/30245> by November 8, 2018. The names, titles, email addresses, and contact numbers of at least three professional references willing to provide letters of reference will be requested during the application process.

The University of Arkansas is an equal opportunity institution committed to achieving diversity in its faculty. Therefore, the university is especially interested in applications from qualified candidates who would contribute to the diversity of our academic departments. The university welcomes applications without regard to race/color, sex, gender, pregnancy, age, national origin, disability, religion, marital or parental status, protected veteran or military status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law. Persons must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States on the first day of employment. All applicant information is subject to public disclosure under the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act.